IT'S OURS AGAIN!

Victoria Trounce Queensland to Regain F.A. Trophy

Victoria showed its football supremacy last week-end by trouncing Queensland 4-1 and 3-2, to regain the Football Association Trophy held by Queensland.

SATURDAY'S team comprised: Ruyters; Logan, McNeill; Wemyss, Westerveldt, T. Vella; L. Vella, Loughran, Hodgson, Neuhold, and Bors.

Monday's team comprised: Ruyters; Logan, Innard; Wemyss, Westerveldt, T. Vella; L. Vella, Loughran, Cook, Hodgson, and Smith.

On Saturday, the Victorian half-back line paved the way for an easy victory by dominating the centre of the field.

Victoria scored after 20 minutes. Topfer saved from Loughran, but outside-right, Vella, gathered the clearance and scored from 25 yards. L. Vella was always dangerous, with Loughran the outstanding player. Time after time he cut the Queensland defence to pieces.

Just before half-time he broke through to make the score 2-0.

Immediately after the re-commencement, Loughran scored two goals in as many minutes. Victoria were twice unlucky when goals were disallowed for infringements.

Twenty minutes from the end, McNeill was taken off by the Manager, Mr. Oliphant. Subsequently it was ascertained that McNeill had suffered a dislocated shoulder.

A few minutes later, Hodgson left the field with a knee injury. Both players were taken to hospital.

With 12 minutes left for play, Westerveldt left the field, but returned before the final whistle.

Neuhold was also injured, but remained on the field.

Victoria finished with nine men on the field.

On Monday, Innard, who was flown to Brisbane on Sunday, replaced McNeill, and thoroughly justified his selection.

Cook scored for Victoria in the 28th minute, and Victoria led 1-0 at half-time.

Five minutes after the resumption, Kitching equalised, but in the 12th minute a penalty kick was awarded to Queensland for no visible reason, but Pitcairn struck the post, the ball travelled across the goal and went over the bye line.

After 18 minutes, Cook scored the second goal under peculiar circumstances. The ball actually crossed the line three times before the referee finally awarded a goal.

Five minutes from full time, T. Vella passed perfectly to Cook, passed to L. Vella, crossed to Loughran, who pushed the ball back to Hodgson, who smashed the ball from 18 yards high into the net.

A minute from time, Queensland reduced the deficit.

The Manager of the Victorian team, Mr. Oliphant, praised the attitude of the Victorian players, who carried out their instructions implicitly. The exemplary conduct of the players was a credit to Victoria. The Manager also wished to thank the Assistant Manager, Mr. Campbell, for his excellent co-operation; and to Dr. Atlas, who had his hands fully occupied.

Victoria can be justly proud of its officials and players, who once again have raised the reputation of Victoria throughout Australia.

TALKING SOCCER

WITH A. H. ("JACK") GIBBONS

Famous International Soccer Coach and Sports Authority

I HAVE noticed, and not without regret, that the number of players sent off the field in First Division matches has recently increased.

I hope the Federation will instruct its referees to deal harshly with any misconduct likely to cause serious injury to a player or any other act likely to hurt the good name of soccer.

The rules permit the referee to exclude a player from the game for reasons other than a physical attack by one player on another.

They also provide for the exclusion from the field of play for "ungentlemanly conduct."

I have never had any time for "exhibitionism" or "clowning" by players during a game. Tenth grade music-hall acts have no place on the soccer field, particularly when the paying public comes to see soccer.

And for my part, I'm getting sick of witnessing players' temperamental outbursts and tantrums during a game.

Much of this "exhibitionism" could be avoided if referees were more firm from the very start.

When players know there is one "Master" on the field who is completely impartial in his decisions, conversant with the rules of the game and intending to control it without fear or favour, they will show him due respect.

Firmly believing that prevention is far better than cure, I don't think it would be amiss if the referee wandered into the dressing-rooms prior to the game and mentioned that he hoped for an enjoyable sporting game, he would do his best to make it so. But any nonsense at all would be firmly dealt with — without hesitation and, I repeat, without fear or favour.

I am sure such an approach to the players, would be appreciated.

BREAK-AWAY

I cannot sympathize with an announcement in the press recently emanating from an official of the Federation that he had been invited to assist in a "break-away" movement in another State.

If the clubs concerned are dissatisfied with their administrative body and have justifiable grounds for "a case," the procedure must first be to appeal to the National Soccer Authority, the Australian Soccer Football Association.

If, as was the case with the clubs that broke away in this State and formed the N.S.W. Federation, the A.S.F.A., proved itself incapable of facing its responsibilities as adjudicator, then the dissatisfied clubs must decide their own future.

I do not think it politic for officials of the Federation to sow the seeds for a second break-away, particularly in another State. The policy of the Federation should be to continue with the promotion of its own competitions, gaining, through efficient administration, and a high standard of conduct and play on the field, more and more public support, so that eventually it will receive "official recognition."

That can be granted to the Federation by the Australian Association, not by the N.S.W. Association.

Announcements such as those which appeared in the press and which were alleged to have been made by a Federation official cannot but do harm to the Federation's claims for membership of the Australian S.F.A., a point that will be used to the fullest possible measure by opponents of the Federation.

Under 11 - Juniors Game

A MOST interesting match took place on Monday, June 16, at Princes Park, between Maccabi and Essendon. It was the first Under 11 match in Melbourne. One of the Maccabi team had not yet reached his sixth year.

Two Under 11 boys refereed the game (one in each half).

Let's have more of this, lads.

Soccer Round Up from U.K.

By J. M. Cook

★ Latest wonder boy in English football is Jimmy Greaves, who was lining up at outside left at the end of the season. Maager Ted Drake, of Chelsea, whom Greaves plays for, says he is a more natural inside forward, and it is in this position he is likely to settle for Chelsea.

★ Jackie Mudie and Bill Perrie respectively finished up the leading goal scorers for Blackpool during the past season.

★ Aberdeen F.C.'s Pittodrie Park will house 25,000 under cover for the start of the new season in Scotland.

★ Before Hearts F.C. won the Scottish First Division championship this season they had no pulleys fitted to their flagpoles — this has now been remedied.

★ 1936-1937 was the last time Scotland beat England at Hampden Park. This year's crowd was 127,000, the stadium has 120 turnstiles.

★ Bobby Charlton (Manchester United and England inside right), brother John is Leeds United centre half.

★ Huddersfield Town could collect an outside cheque if they were prepared to sell young forwards Dennis Law and Les Massie.

★ Lawry Reilly, former Scotland centre and a faithful Hibs member for many years, may be forced to give up the game with recurring knee trouble. Lawrie had 38 full caps for Scotland and 13 League caps, which has made him the most capped forward ever for Scotland.

★ In his first season as Manager of Norwich City, former Arsenal player Archie McAulay has reason to be proud. In season 1956-57, Norwich were near the bottom of the Third Division, English League South; the past season they only just missed promotion to the Second Division.

★ Tony Macedo, Fulham's brilliant young goalkeeper, who has already been honoured by F.A., belongs to Gibraltar.

★ Bill Murray, the former Sunderland manager, who resigned last season when Sunderland were fined £5,000 for making illegal payments to players may come back into the game. Bill is considering an English and Scottish offer.

Junior Notes

THE Under 14 State team will play another practice game at Middle Park (South Melbourne's ground) to-morrow, June 22, against Dandenong Under 15; kick-off 2.45 p.m. State team: Rogers; Hedley, Caithness; Mullen, Murcott, Rossetto; Wills, Wilson, W. Vojtek, Stirling, Culbard. Reserves: Molloy, J. Vojtek, and Lockwood. On June 29, the State Under 14 team will travel to Morwell to play Werkspoor Junior Under 15; at present unbeaten. Players to meet at Y.M.C.A. promptly at 9.30 a.m.

All Clubs in the Under 17 Section B, please note that the following teams have withdrawn from this section: Fishermen's Bend and Wesley College.

Congratulations to Essendon Ascots, playing their second game in the Under 13 Section B last Saturday, on winning their first match, against Maccabi. These youngsters, average age only 11 years, practically all live in the Ascot Vale area, and are coached by Mr. Van Pelt, a well-known personality in Junior circles. These boys have only been training for a few weeks, and some have never played Soccer before.

Yallourn, a new team in the Under 17 Section B, have yet to win a game. The average age of this team from the Latrobe Valley is only 14½ years. All their matches are played in the metropolitan area, including Cup matches.

Second Division

By DON SUTHERLAND.

AS a result of lapses by five of the six leading teams last week, the powerful Sicilian combination, under the leadership of Max Vivoli, has gone to the top of the ladder. With two games in hand over most of their rivals, the Sicilian Club, even at this stage, appears to have a mortgage on the premiership, and must be favoured to defeat Fiorentina in the second round of the Dockerty Cup.

By defeating a strong and confident Ferntree Gully team, Sicilia avenged their only defeat of the season, and topped the Gully from League leadership.

Vic. Police narrowly escaped defeat at the hands of Moorabbin City, and the loss of this point could later prove costly. Moorabbin's star forward, Vin Carter, has played a prominent part in the Club's recent rise from the doldrums.

Croydon showed their true ability with a splendid win over an out-of-form Bayswater.

Sandringham City were humbled 3-1 by lowly Rosebud, who thoroughly deserved to win because of their vigorous, non-stop style of football, in which left-back Kleinsman and centre-half Kuipers were the stars; while Joe Doherty was the only Sandringham player to show up.

The second round of the Dockerty Cup promises some exciting games, with Ferntree Gully and F.N.D. being favoured to defeat First Division Vic. Colts and South Yarra respectively; while Vic. Police are sure to test the strong Yallourn side.

To the Editor

Spectator Hooliganism

Sir.—On Saturday, June 7, at Campbell Reserve, Moreland, I witnessed the most disgusting display of spectator hooliganism it has been my misfortune to see since I arrived in Australia. Apart from interference by some George Cross supporters running on the ground and abusing the referee, the English language of the "sportsmen" was never learned in any dictionary.

A few of the George Cross team were playing very dirtily indeed, and in my opinion, had the referee not feared the consequences, he would have ordered them off. He was quite busily engaged, however, taking names, and it will be interesting to see the outcome.

Let us hope that we read of something that is to be done to stop these fanatics ruining the game of Soccer in Australia.

Personally, I am strongly of the opinion that all national clubs should be disbanded and never again allowed to re-form.

Readers may think that this is too drastic a step, and that Soccer must suffer by such a move; but until we get assimilation, and not encourage segregation, as we are now doing by supporting National club formation, then Soccer in Australia will definitely slide.

All the publicity we are getting is really bad, and we have only one thing to blame for it. National Clubs. Wipe them out, and we will forge ahead.—Yours, etc.,

U.V.S.F.A. Details

Sir. — The results of matches played on June 1 read as follows: Seymour Soccer C. 4, v. Seymour United 1. Seymour United have now adopted the "United" instead of Dragoons. Incidentally, the result of this game did not reach me until Friday, June 6 — Orange Lions 2 v. Bendigo United 3.

The League match played June 8 resulted in a win for Lions — Seymour United 1, v. Orange Lions 6.

The League table should now read as follows:—

Team.	P	W	D	L	GOALS
					F	A	P
Bendigo U.	5	4	0	1	15	6	8
Orange Lions	7	3	1	3	16	11	7
Seymour So.	5	3	0	2	22	10	6
Seymour U.	4	1	1	2	6	13	3
Tongala	5	1	0	4	5	24	2

You will have learned by this time, no doubt, that Bendigo United 2, v. Newborough 4, was the result of the Dockerty Cup replay, which took place in Bendigo, Saturday, June 7. We in Bendigo wish Newborough every success in future rounds, and thank them for a clean, hard game. Yours, etc.,

C. WORSDELL,

Hon. Sec., U.V.S.F.A.

Referee Not Up To Standard

Sir.—On Saturday, June 7, I had the misfortune to watch a Soccer game at Campbell Reserve (George Cross v. Box Hill). Yes, I said misfortune, because some ugly incidents occurred. And, in my humble opinion, was only on account of the referee, who I don't think was of the required standard. He done his best, poor fellow, and a lot of spectators felt sorry for him. It looked obvious from the start of the game what was going to happen — he lost complete control in the first half, with both sides dictating to him what to do; and later, it was very hard and impossible for him to regain control in the second half.

I appeal to the Association for the sake of the game, to keep an eye on the referees, same as they do on the players.

I also wish to suggest to the Committee of the George Cross to obtain some sort of Police Warrant to stop certain one or two persons from entering the ground to watch Soccer, who everybody knows that they attend only to create incidents which are disgusting everybody, and are disgracing the whole Maltese community.—Yours, etc.,

WITH Hungarian inside-right, Peter, unavailable for the match against Park Rangers, South Melbourne United moved Macleod to that position, allowing Jack Wilson to take up his usual inside-left spot, and Don Jordon to resume his favourite place at centre-forward. The 9-0 result will make it hard to change the line-up.

In Maccabi Reserves' defeat of University Reserves recently, Breitberg scored four goals for the winners. Then last week, when Maccabi inflicted on Yallourn Reserves their first defeat for the season, Finkelstein scored five goals for Maccabi. Both players have now been promoted to the senior team.
